

Position: Business Manager

Status: Non-Exempt

Position Summary:

National Alliance for Children's Grief is currently seeking a Business Manager to organize and coordinate processes and procedures supporting organizational effectiveness, efficiency and safety.

The ideal candidate would be an energetic professional who is comfortable wearing multiple hats and experienced in handling a wide range of administrative and staff support related tasks. The candidate would be able to work independently, be well organized, flexible and enjoy the administrative challenges of supporting an organization of diverse people. The candidate must hold anti-racist values and be dedicated to practicing from an anti-oppression lens. Bi-lingual skills would be appreciated.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Reports directly to the Chief Executive Officer and serves as a team member.
- Responsible for administrative tasks and streamlines administrative procedures.
- Organizes operations and procedures for the organization.

Key Job Responsibilities:

- Answer and direct phone calls as needed.
- Maintain contact lists.
- Organize and schedule meetings and appointments as needed.
- Assist with management of membership data base.
- Assist in the preparation of regularly scheduled reports.
- Collect end-of-month reports from various vendors and database programs.
- Assist with ongoing website management.
- Manage orders related to books and other NACG resources.
- Assist with donor acknowledgements and correspondence.
- Assist with newsletters of the organization as needed.
- Point person for mailing, shipping, supplies, equipment, and errands.
- Maintain Organizational Policies and Procedures documents, as necessary.
- Maintain Employee Handbook, as necessary.
- Responsible for managing annual administration calendar.
- Participate actively in the planning and execution of the organization's events.
- Maintain equipment inventory records.
- Manage document retention and destruction process.
- Responsible for creating PowerPoint slides and assembling packets, as needed.
- Assist with booking travel and accommodations.
- Assist with ordering marketing items and conference supplies.
- Perform tasks associated with special projects.

Critical Competencies for Success:

- Ability to work in a virtual environment and maintain accountability.
- Ability to communicate effectively, both written and verbally.
- Ability to self-start and to systematically track multiple needs and issues simultaneously.
- Ability to organize as well as manage time effectively to meet deadlines.
- Ability to work collaboratively.
- Ability to be flexible and be a team player.
- Ability to maintain the highest standards of professionalism and confidentiality.

Qualifications:

- 2-5 years of work experience in an administrative/office management role.
- Knowledge of office management responsibilities, systems, and procedures.
- Must have exceptional attention to detail.
- Strong organizational and time management skills, ability to prioritize and problem-solving skills.
- Knowledge of accounting, data and administrative management practices and procedures.
- Available to work 20 hours per week.
- Working knowledge of and ability to learn a variety of computer programs and applications.

Preferred:

- Bi-lingual skills.

Working Conditions:

The NACG conducts its business through a virtual office. The Business Manager will work from a remote, home office. Laptop computer, printer and scanner will be provided by or costs reimbursed by the NACG. The Business Manager may be asked to travel to the National Alliance for Children's Grief Annual Symposium.

Reporting Relationship:

The Business Manager reports directly to the CEO of the organization.

Applicants should complete the on-line application.

Questions should be directed to vicki.jay@childrengrieve.org.