

The Dougy Center for Grieving Children & Families

International Summer Institute

Developing Peer Grief Support Programs for Children and Teens

July 22 - 26, 2019

Join The Dougy Center's knowledgeable staff for an opportunity to discover the fundamentals of developing and operating peer support groups for grieving children, teens, and families. Learn with colleagues from around the United States and beyond who plan to start or who have already directly established programs for grieving children.

Learn how to:

1. Start a program like The Dougy Center's, including philosophies, policies, procedures, and staffing
2. Gain understanding about the needs of grieving children, teens, and their families
3. Develop skills in reflection, awareness, communication, and group facilitation
4. Recruit, screen, train, place, and supervise volunteers
5. Enroll families, place children in groups, use resource and referral services
6. Design a program that fits the needs of your community
7. Build a successful Board of Directors and Advisory Board
8. Develop fundraising techniques and identify funding sources
9. Identify and build an individual donor base and endowment gifts
10. Successfully market your program in your community

Summer Institute Registration

The International Summer Institute is a program development and skills training for working with peer support groups for grieving children and teens. Because of the nature of the subject, it is recommended that if you have had a major, recent (within the past year) death or trauma that you delay your registration for this Institute. If you have questions regarding this recommendation, please contact us at 503.775.5683.

Please answer the following and enclose with your registration.

1. Please tell us why you are interested in attending this training.
2. Describe any prior training you have had related to grief.
3. Does your experience include the death of someone close? If so, when did the death(s) occur?
(List dates and causes of death)
4. What do you hope to gain as a result of attending this training?
5. In what way do you hope to utilize what you learn?
6. Any other comments or information you believe would help us in planning for your participation?

Thank you. You will receive registration confirmation within two weeks after receiving your registration.
